

Ten-Dollar Textbooks for Igumbilo Lutheran Girls School

Many classrooms and students have absolutely NO textbooks from which to learn or study making learning very tedious and ineffective as they struggle to learn from memory or taking notes. For approximately $10 a piece, a textbook can be purchased in Tanzania, which supports the local economies, meets the government's standards and benchmarks for curriculum, and builds learning capacity for schools as these textbooks are brought into the schools for repeated, ongoing use. The Western Iowa Synod Lutheran Youth Organization (LYO), of which two of the council members are returning to Tanzania in the summer of 2010, will be spearheading this great project for the Western Iowa Synod.

Make checks payable to "Western Iowa Synod" and indicate "Ten-Dollar Textbooks for Tanzania" in memo line.

The first monies raised will go towards textbooks at the Igumbilo Lutheran Girls Secondary School we support as a partner project. Textbooks purchased with money raised by the middle of July will be delivered and gifted to the school by our two LYO council youth traveling there. This project will begin at the Western Iowa Synod Assembly and continue through the end of 2010.

The youth will be collecting $10 or whatever amounts assembly-goers and others are willing to contribute. They will additionally be encouraging 2010 Vacation Bible School and Sunday School groups as well as the Jr. and Sr. High Youth events to join this vital cause.

Donations of any kind and at any time may additionally be made through the Western Iowa Synod, PO Box 577, Storm Lake, IA 50588. Please indicate on the check that it is designated for Ten-Dollar Textbooks for Tanzania.

Please pray for this project and consider giving a donation to help improve the education of these young women in Tanzania. Asante Sana! (Thank you!)
